

TGYFC 2022 RULE CHANGES

- Teams are required to have security wands at the gate (or any other point of entry) No Exceptions.
- Only Coaches/staff are allowed to have clear/mesh bags. Coaches/Staff are no longer allowed to have regular backpacks. ALL BAGS MUST BE CLEAR or mesh. Bags are still subject to be checked. NO EXCEPTIONS
- Teams that are not in compliance with the mandatory security wands & the bag policy (clear for coaches/staff & no bags for attendants), will be fined $1,000 a level and forfeit of every game that they are not in compliance.
- Teams have the right to refusal of play if the security wands & bag policies aren't being followed.
- All teams are required to have 2 police officers. 1 must be at the field of play.
- If security isn't present before the start of the game, games will be postponed until security arrives. If security hasn't arrived after 15min of the game start time, that game will be forfeited. Teams without security will be fined $500 per game that there is no security.
- Players are no longer allowed to bring duffel bags into the facilities
- Cheerleaders are able to have clear backpacks no larger than 12x12
- Wagons are allowed (no pockets or hidden compartments).
- Tents are allowed but they must be removed from the bag. The bag is not allowed in the facilities. (No Exceptions)
- Chairs are allowed but they must be removed from the bag. The bag is not allowed in the facilities. Also, the chair cannot contain any secret compartments
- Attendants are no longer allowed to bring bags into the facilities. Only the hand held wallet size are allowed (size 4.5x6 in)
- Diaper bags must be a clear bag no larger than 12x12. Diaper bags are with age reason of the child, no diaper bags for children over 4 yrs.
- Serious or Multiple violations will result in permanent removal of the organization at fault from TGYFL
- Only the head coach is allowed on the field to speak to the referee. Any other staff on the field of play will be removed, suspended, and the organization will be fined. No Exceptions
Suspended - how long?
Fine - how much?
- With the exception of parents and/or legal guardians, Only 2 staff members & medical personnel are allowed on the field during injury timeouts. Any other staff on the field of play will be removed from the game, suspended, and the organization will be fined. No Exceptions.
Suspended - how long?
Fine - how much?
- Any display of aggression (profanity, threats, unsportsmanlike physical aggression and gestures) towards the opposing teams sidelines or referees will result in that staff member being removed, suspended, and the organization will be fined. No Exceptions.

- If a situation during the game becomes increasingly out of control, the referee has the right to call the game.

Add: sole discretion of the lead referee

- Coaches/staff/parents rushing the field to help break up a fight or to participate in the situation will be removed from the game and the venue, suspended, and the organization will be fined. NO EXCEPTIONS

Suspended - how long?

Fine - how much?

- Parents that have to be removed from a game and the venue will be required to take their child with them. This also goes for any other family members in attendance with them must be removed from the venue.

- Home teams are responsible for the chain crew and they are to be on the home team sidelines. Chain crew must be 18yr or older.

- No kids, other than the ones that are playing, are allowed on the sidelines of any games.

- Any and all physical altercations will result in permanent suspension from the TGYFCL.

- All of the TGYFL rules implemented reach not only throughout the Gridiron league but to other events outside of the Gridiron season. This includes but not limited to spring Football, showcase, travel games, scrimmages, pickup games, 7 on 7, tournaments, nationals, or any other sporting event.

- TGYFL reserve the right to increase or extend any punishments or fines levied against teams, staff, parents, and attendees.

--

Lakisha Pennie, Admin Assistant
Texas Gridiron Youth Football and Cheer
texasgridironnfls@gmail.com | 346.774.3303